

[No. 11, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 11.

Whereas, it has come to the knowledge of this body that E. W. Persons, of DePere, Brown county, an honored member of the Wisconsin Senate during the terms of 1889-1891, died at Phoenix, Arizona, on Monday, February 13, 1899; therefore be it

Resolved, that, while we bow in submission to the Supreme Ruler, we hereby express our regrets at the loss of an esteemed citizen of the state, and that we extend to the family of the deceased our sincere sympathy and condolence; be it further

Resolved, that this resolution be spread upon the journal of the senate, and that an engrossed and certified copy thereof be transmitted to the family of the late Senator E. W. Persons, and be it further

Resolved, that as a token of respect we do now adjourn.

[No. 36, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 12.

Whereas, this body has heard with sorrow of the death of one of Wisconsin's foremost citizens, Major D. C. Fulton, who ably served the state and nation as a member of this assembly and as major of the 30th Wis. Infantry during the civil war and in other state and national positions; and who by his private benevolences and his business integrity has endeared himself to all, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, that the State of Wisconsin has lost in him a man of such large usefulness that it is proper that this Legislature take public notice of his death.

Resolved further, that these resolutions be enrolled and a copy thereof, signed by the proper officials, forwarded to the sorrowing wife and family to whom we tender our deepest sympathy in their great bereavement.
