CHAPTER 134.

AN ACT to amend section 2450 of chapter 114 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 as amended by chapter 49 of the laws of 1899 relating to county courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Holding court in another county; compensation. SECTION 1. Section 2450 of chapter 114 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, as amended by chapter 49 of the laws of 1899, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 2450. The county judges may perform all official duties of county judges, including holding court in any county other than the one in which they shall have been elected, upon the request of the county judge of such other county, and while so doing they shall have the same powers as if elected for the county in which they are acting. Whenever any county judge, pursuant to this section, shall hold court or perform any other duty hereunder, in any county other than that for which he was elected, he shall receive his actual expenses, to be audited and paid by the county board of the county in which he so acts.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 135.

AN ACT amending section 925—95 and section 925—95a of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, relating to water works and lighting.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Works, how operated. SECTION 1. Section 925—95 of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 925—95. In cities which own a lighting plant or water works, or both, such lighting plant or water works, or both, may be operated under the direction of the board of public works or by a commission, to be determined by ordinance of the common council, to consist of the mayor, three citizens, and one alderman to be appointed by the mayor.

Three citizens of commission, how elected. SECTION 2. Section 925—95a of the Wisconsin statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by striking out the word "water" in the second line so that said section when so amended, shall read as follows. Section 925—95a. The common council of any city which shall have determined to have a commission as provided in the foregoing section, shall at the first regular meeting of the council thereafter, elect by ballot, by a majority, three citizens whose terms of office shall expire on the first Tuesday of October, one in the year of his election, one in the year following the year of his election, and one in the second year following the year of his
