

No. 251, A.]

[Published May 6, 1901.

CHAPTER 273.

AN ACT to authorize any city of the fourth class to provide by ordinance or resolution of its common council, for the use of a portion of all its streets for the deposit of building material thereon and by ordinance for the use of not to exceed three and one-half feet of its streets adjacent to any business building, for approaches to such building, stairways to basement floors and openings for light to basements.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Proceedings by ordinance. SECTION 1. Any city of the fourth class, organized and existing under the general law or under a special charter, as the case may be, may by an ordinance or resolution of its common council, provide for the use of not to exceed one-third in width of any or all of its streets adjacent to any proposed building, for the purpose of temporarily depositing thereon, building material and other articles necessary to be used in and about the construction of such building, and may by ordinance of its common council provide for the use of not to exceed three and one-half feet of its street or streets adjacent to any business building or proposed business building therein, to be used for approaches to such building, stairways to the basement floors of such building or openings for light to such basements.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 2, 1901.