CHAPTER 422.

AN ACT to amend chapter 31 of the statutes of 1898, entitled “an act in relation to the education of the deaf and dumb.”

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Inspector for schools for; duties of; salary; state aid, accounting of. SECTION 1. There is hereby added to chapter 31 of the statutes of 1898 a new section, to be known as section 579a, as follows: Section 579a. The state superintendent of public instruction may appoint a competent person who shall act under his direction as inspector of public day schools for the deaf and for the Delavan school for the deaf. When not engaged in the inspection of the schools for the deaf, he may be assigned for such other duties as the state superintendent may determine and designate. The inspector shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars and re-imburements for all actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred, when duly certified by the state superintendent; provided, that no more than five hundred dollars shall be allowed for expenses. The salary and expenses shall be paid in the same manner as the state officers are paid. It shall be the duty of the city or village treasurer receiving the money provided for in section 578 of the statutes of 1898 to render annually to the superintendent of public instruction an itemized statement of all expenditures of said day school. All unexpended moneys appropriated by the state for the maintenance of said schools, shall be returned to the state treasurer before July first of each year. All surplus now on hand with village or city treasurers belonging to the day schools shall be returned to the state treasurer on or before the first day of July, 1901. It shall be the duty of the inspector to report annually to the superintendent of public instruction as to the condition and progress of the day schools, and make such recommendations as he may deem proper for the improvement of the same.
