CHAPTER 169.

AN ACT amendatory of section 927 of the statutes of 1898, relating to powers of villages and cities especially incorporated, and to amend sections 919a and 919d of the statutes of 1898, relating to the construction of sewers and drains in

The State of Wisconsin represented in senate and as do enact as follows:

Powers of cities and villages specially incorporated. SECTION 1. Section 927 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by inserting after the word "inclusive" in the seventh line of said section, the following: "and by sections 919a to 919m, inclusive," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 927. Every village incorporated under special law shall be taken as embraced within the provisions of section 870, and additions to its territory may be made in the manner therein prescribed, and its board of trustees shall also possess the powers conferred by section 892. The board of trustees of every such village and the common council of every city, may exercise all the powers conferred on village boards by sections 895 to 904 inclusive, and by sections 919a to 919m, inclusive, and proceed in the manner therein prescribed to lay out and open, change, widen or extend any street, lane, alley, public ground, square or other place, or to construct or open, alter, enlarge or extend any drain, canal or sewer, or alter, widen or straighten any water-course, or take ground for any street, lane, alley, public ground, square or other public place, or for sewers or drainage purposes, or for the use or improvement of a harbor, as well as by the provisions of their respective charters; and the provisions of the sections aforesaid shall be taken as applicable to such villages and cities.

Making and alteration of. SECTION 2. Section 919a of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by inserting after the word "necessary" in the eighth line of said section, the words "and to cause a sewage disposal plant to be constructed within or without the limits of the village," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 919a. It shall be lawful for the president and trustees of any village incorporated under general or special law, whenever they shall deem it necessary for the public health, to cause sewers and drains to be made in any part of such village, and to order and direct the construction of either of the same, and to alter, repair or mend any sewer or drain heretofore, or hereafter, constructed within said village, and to cause a main sewer for the purpose of an outlet for the branch sewers and drains to be constructed without the limits of said village when necessary; and to cause a sewage disposal plant to be constructed within, or without, the limits of the village; and in the manner hereinafter provided to cause to be made plans thereof, and estimates of the cost and expense thereof, and a just and equitable assessment of such costs and expenses among the owners of all lots, pieces and parcels of land intended to be benefited thereby in proportion to the street frontage of such lots, pieces and parcels of land.

Expenses of construction, how paid. SECTION 3. Section 919d of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by inserting at the end of line five of said section, the following: "construction and operation of a sewage disposal plant and of the," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 919d. The cost of the construction of a main sewer for the purpose of an outlet for the branch sewers, and the cost of the construction of all main sewers in excess of the cost of a minor sewer eight inches in diameter, and the cost of all sewers in street and alley crossings shall be paid out of the general sewer fund. The cost of the construction and operation of a sewage disposal plant, and of the construction of man holes, catch basins, for the receiving of water from gutters and of the overflow pipes connecting them with the sewers, and of the repairing and cleaning of sewers and all expenditures for temporary work necessary to carry out the system of sewerage as adopted, and all cost of constructing sewers not provided for by special assessment, shall be paid out of the general sewer fund. The cost of construction of minor sewers, and such portion of the cost of the construction of main sewers, as shall be equal to the cost of construction of a minor sewer eight inches in diameter, shall be paid out of moneys derived from special assessments on the lots, pieces or parcels of land abutting on the street along which any such sewer shall be constructed as hereinafter provided.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
