

[No. 6, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 3.

WHEREAS, in His inscrutable wisdom, God has seen fit to remove from their sphere of usefulness, James Foley, chief of the Milwaukee Fire Department, and Andrew J. White, Captain of Truck 1, and Edward Hogan, pipeman, Co. No. 1, Thos. A. Dooney, pipeman of Chemical Co. No. 1, besides placing in imminent danger Assistant Chief Clancy and other members of the department: and,

WHEREAS, JAMES FOLEY was a man with a national reputation as a fire fighter, and a man with the highest ideals of what a fire department should be; therefore,

RESOLVED, by the Assembly the Senate concurring, that in the death of Chief Foley Milwaukee suffers an irreparable loss, and the state of Wisconsin loses a splendid citizen whose example was an incentive to every man to do his full duty, no matter what his position might be.

RESOLVED, further, that this Legislature desires to express its admiration for the man and to extend its condolences not only to his afflicted family, but also to the city of Milwaukee.

RESOLVED, further, that these resolutions be engrossed and one copy sent to the family and another to the Common Council of Milwaukee.

---

[No. 14, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4.

WHEREAS, since this body was last convened, its President, the Honorable Jesse Stone, Lieutenant Governor, has been called from labor to rest, from trouble to peace, from this seen to that unseen world where we trust that enduring comfort makes amends for all losses; therefore,

RESOLVED by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, that in the death of Lieutenant Governor Stone, who passed away at his home in Watertown on the eleventh day of May, 1902, this body lost a most courteous, impartial and highly esteemed presiding officer, that the State lost an able official of unimpeachable character, that his home city lost a citizen of wide and good repute, a neighbor whose good and kindly offices were numberless as well as bountiful, that the church lost a liberal and unblemished adherent and that we sincerely bear this testimony to the worth and kindliness of a man whose like we shall not soon look upon again.

RESOLVED that we hereby tender his stricken family such possible consolation as may be in heartfelt sympathy, thoughtful commiseration and the assurance that our sorrow and sense of loss are constantly emphasized by our knowledge of the unspeakable character of that which they must endure.

RESOLVED that these resolutions be entered in the journal and that a copy suitably engrossed and signed by the President and Chief Clerk of the Senate, the Speaker and Chief Clerk of the Assembly, be sent to the bereaved family.

---

[No. 9, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5.

WHEREAS since we last convened death has removed from among our number the Honorable De Wayne Stebbins, who departed this life June 12th, 1901, therefore RESOLVED by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, that in the death of this eminent Senator the Senate has lost one of its most patient and influential members, the State of Wisconsin one of its noblest sons and the country one of its bravest defenders. His gallant service in the American navy, under Farragut, will long be remembered by the American people. His services to the country in the hour of need is a worthy example to the rising generation. His good business qualities, his loyalty to duty, his kindness of heart, his faith in a friend, his high character, his honor in fulfilling promises made, his winning personality, all leave a record of nobility and frankness that will live in our hearts as a blossom to remind us of dear Senator Stebbins.

RESOLVED that we tender to the bereaved family of the honored dead our most earnest expression of sympathy, assuring them