CHAPTER 360.

AN ACT to amend section 20 of the statutes of 1898, relating to the notice of election by the secretary of state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Notice of election by secretary of state. SECTION 1. Section 20 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 20. The secretary of state, between the first day of July and the first day of September in each year in which state officers, representatives in congress, members of the assembly and state senators are to be elected for a full term of office, or in which electors of president and vice-president are to be elected, shall make out a notice in writing stating that at the next general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November following, the officers aforesaid, or so many of such officers as are then to be chosen, are to be elected, and specifying in the case of such representatives and senators the respective districts in which they are to be elected, and shall publish a copy of such notice in a newspaper printed at the seat of government once in each week from the date of such notice until the election to which it refers, and shall transmit by mail a like notice to the county clerk of each county, specifying the said officers to be voted for in said county, and in case of a senator, the number of his district, and also any constitutional amendment or other question to be submitted to the electors of the state for a popular vote.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 12, 1905.
