JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2.

WHEREAS, The present interstate commerce law has, by experience, been proven to be ineffectual in securing to the people just and reasonable rates for the transportation of persons and property, and

WHEREAS, Great and continuous effort has been made to secure congressional legislation, to the end that the Interstate Commerce Commission be given such power as to insure the establishment and maintenance of just and reasonable rates for such transportation to the people of this country, and

WHEREAS, President Roosevelt has made recommendations to congress, in his recent message, that the Interstate Commerce Commission should be vested with the power, where a given rate (for the transportation of property in interstate or foreign commerce) has been challenged, and, after full hearing, found to be unreasonable, to decide, subject to judicial review, what shall be a reasonable rate to take its place; the ruling of the commission to take effect immediately, and to obtain unless, and until, it is reversed by the court of review, therefore be it

Resolved, by the senate, the assembly concurring, That we respectfully memorialize the fifty-eighth congress of the United States, to enact at its present session, such legislation as shall comply in letter and spirit with the said recommendations of President Roosevelt, and we respectfully demand of the senators and representatives, and each of them, representing this state in the congress of the United States to vote for, and urge, to the best of their ability, the immediate enactment into law of such proposed legislation, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of State to the President of the United States, the President of the Senate of the United States, and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each of the senators and representatives from this state.
