(In effect July 1, 1907.)

erected shall make suitable provision for the heating, lighting and ventilating, and hygienic conditions of such buildings, and all plans and specifications for any such proposed school building shall be submitted to and approved by the county superintendent of schools in whose jurisdiction the district is located, before the same shall be accepted by the school district board of the district in which it is proposed to erect such building.

Appropriation. 3. Five hundred dollars is appropriated from the general fund, for the use of the state superintendent in procuring the plans and specifications provided in section one of this act.

(Ch. 425, 1907.)

Township school bonds binding. SECTION 553—1. All bonds heretofore issued by any school district organized under the township system, where the issue of such bonds has in fact been submitted to the electors of said district at any election therein held, and a majority of the votes cast at such election in favor of the issue of such bonds, and the bonds have in fact been issued and sold, and the proceeds thereof actually paid to such district, are declared to be in all respects legal, binding and valid obligations of the school district so issuing the same according to the terms of such bonds.

General district law applied to township issues. SECTION 553—2. Such districts organized under the township system are authorized to issue bonds or other legal obligations as fully and to the same extent as if organized under the general law relating to other school districts.

Agriculture and domestic economy: state aid for eight schools. SECTION 553I. Any school established under the provisions of this act, whose course of study and qualifications of whose teachers have been approved by the state superintendent and the dean of the college of agriculture may, upon application, be placed upon an approved list of county schools of agriculture and domestic economy. A school once entered upon such list may remain listed and be entitled to state aid so long as the scope and character of its work are maintained in such manner as to meet the approval of the state superintendent;
