CHAPTER 64.

AN ACT to amend chapter 253, laws of 1885, relating to the ownership and disposition of the property of the Baptist church.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Transfer of local church property to state convention.

SECTION 1. All property of any kind belonging to, or held in trust for any Baptist church, or Baptist church and society, or Baptist society, organized under the laws of this state, that has become or shall become extinct by death of all its members or otherwise, shall vest in and become the property of the Wisconsin Baptist state convention, a religious incorporation engaged in religious missionary work, and in fostering weak Baptist churches in this state, and organized under chapter 221 of the laws of Wisconsin for 1852.

Grounds for transfer; circuit court may order.

SECTION 2. Any Baptist church, or Baptist church and society or Baptist society, in this state, which has ceased, or failed to maintain religious worship, or services, or to use its property

Showing without license; penalty. 2. Any person violating any requirements of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than twenty days nor more than sixty days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(Ch. 634, 1907.)

Wolf cub bounty. SECTION 1626. Any person who shall kill any wolf cub * * * between the first day of March and the first day of November next following shall be entitled to a reward of * * * four dollars, and every person who shall kill any mature wolf shall be entitled to a reward of ten dollars, and every person who shall kill a wildcat or lynx shall be entitled to a reward of three dollars to be paid by the county wherein said wolf, wildcat or lynx was killed, upon compliance with the provisions of section 1627 of the statutes of 1898. Nothing in this act shall prohibit any county from increasing said bounty or reward by a majority vote of its county board at any annual meeting, provided that no county shall pay more than six dollars reward for the killing of a wolf cub as above described. Upon compliance with the provisions of section 1628 of the statutes of 1898, the same reward for the killing of any wolf, wildcat or lynx shall be paid by the state as is paid by the county under this section.

(Ch. 102, 1907.)
