be granted or issued to any person not a full citizen of the United States and of this state and a resident of the town, village or city in which such license is applied for, nor shall any such license be granted or issued to any person who has been convicted of an offense against the laws of this state punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

(Ch. 188, 1907.)

General application of this act. SECTION 1565m. The provisions of this act shall apply to each and every town, village and city in this state, whether the same be operating under the general laws of this state or special act.

(Ch. 188, 1907.)

Repeal of inconsistent laws. SECTION 1565n. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby amended or repealed so far as necessary to give force and effect thereto.

Hawkers' and peddlers' state licenses: issue, contents; non-transferable. SECTION 1573. 1. Upon the filing of an application for such license with the secretary of state, and the presentation to him of a receipt from the state treasurer showing the payment of the fee, as hereinbefore provided, the secretary of state shall issue to the applicant a license for a period of one year, from the date of the issuance of the receipts of the state treasurer; the full license fee to be paid in every case, which license shall be signed by the secretary of state or his assistant and every such license shall authorize the person receiving the same to use one wagon or other vehicle, drawn by two or more horses or other beasts of burden and no more, or automobile or other vehicle or conveyance propelled by mechanical power, one wagon or other vehicle drawn by one horse or other beast of burden and no more, one push or hand cart or other vehicle not drawn by horses or other beasts of burden and no more, or the baskets, packs or other means necessary for one peddler carrying (by himself) merchandise on foot, as the case may be, and such license shall not be assignable or transferable except where due notice has been given the state treasury agent and the same has received his approval.

Change to higher class. 2. Any person having a license in one class may, with approval of the treasury agent, and on ap- plication and payment as with other applications, have his license changed to a higher class by paying the difference in cost between the fee for the license he has and the fee for the higher class applied for, the time of expiration of the license to remain unchanged. Peddlers may at any time, without notice, peddle in any class below the class he has paid for but no part of any fee can be returned.

(Ch. 634, 1907.)

Treasury agent and assistants: salary, expenses, commissions. SECTION 1583. There shall be * * * paid * * * out of the state treasury on warrants drawn by the secretary of state, the sum of two thousand dollars annually * * *, which * * * shall be * * * in full for salary of the state treasury agent and his assistant, together with his actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of his duties and to the deputy agents ten per cent of the licenses actually collected and turned into the state by them * * * ; but the necessary blanks and advertising for the performance of his duties shall be furnished by the state.

Showmen's state licenses; exemptions as to fairs. SECTION 1584. 1. Every owner, manager or agent of a caravan, circus or menagerie, before he shall be allowed to exhibit the same in this state, shall procure a license as a public showman by making application in writing to the secretary of state, which application shall state in detail the manner in which he intends to travel and the nature and character of his exhibition, and shall pay into the treasury therefor the sum of one hundred dollars; and every owner or manager of a so-called side show, traveling vaudeville, ferris-wheel, merry-go-round, ocean wave or transient shooting gallery, and every person exhibiting for money any trained animal, wild animal or any object of curiosity shall procure a state license as a public showman and pay therefor twenty dollars: provided, that such persons, owners or agents shall not be required to pay such license fee if they shall state in their application that they apply for the license solely for the purpose of exhibiting at, during the continuance and on the grounds of annual county, district or state fair associations drawing aid from the state under the provisions of sections 1458c, 1458d, 1463 of the statutes, and chapter 320, laws of 1907.

Showing without license; penalty. 2. Any person violating any requirements of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than twenty days nor more than sixty days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Wolf cub bounty. SECTION 1626. Any person who shall kill any wolf cub * * * between the first day of March and the first day of November next following shall be entitled to a reward of * * * four dollars, and every person who shall kill any mature wolf shall be entitled to a reward of ten dollars, and every person who shall kill a wildcat or lynx shall be entitled to a reward of three dollars to be paid by the county wherein said wolf, wildcat or lynx was killed, upon compliance with the provisions of section 1627 of the statutes of 1898. Nothing in this act shall prohibit any county from increasing said bounty or reward by a majority vote of its county board at any annual meeting, provided that no county shall pay more than six dollars reward for the killing of a wolf cub as above described. Upon compliance with the provisions of section 1628 of the statutes of 1898, the same reward for the killing of any wolf, wildcat or lynx shall be paid by the state as is paid by the county under this section.

(Ch. 102, 1907.)

Wild animal bounties: time of exhibiting carcass; statements; witnesses to removal and destruction of scalps. SECTION 1627. 1. Any person claiming * * * a reward under section 1626 as amended or hereafter amended, shall exhibit the carcass of the animal killed, not earlier than eight o'clock A. M., nor later than five o'clock P. M., of any day within six days after the killing thereof to the chairman of the board of supervisors of the town wherein it was killed, and * * * shall sign and deliver to him in the presence of at least one witness, who shall sign as witness, a statement in substantially the following form:
