CHAPTER 121.

AN ACT to create section 2261m of the statutes, relating to the platting of lands near the boundaries of cities of the first, second and third classes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 2261m. 1. The owner of any lands lying outside the corporate limits of any city in the state of the first, second or third class, and situated within one and one-half miles of such limits, desiring to divide the same into lots or blocks by the platting thereof, shall, in the platting of such lands, cause the streets and alleys shown on the map thereof to be laid out and platted to the satisfaction of the common council of such cities, and shall submit such map thereof, and if it shall be approved, he shall cause it to be recorded within thirty days of the date of such approval together with the evidence of approval of the common council, which shall be a copy of the ordinance or resolution adopted by such common council certified to by the city clerk, and affixed to such map.

2. Any map or plat of such lands not so approved or not accompanied by such evidence of its approval or which shall not be offered for record, on or before sixty days after the date of such resolutions, shall not be recorded or received for the purpose of being recorded, and shall have no validity whatever.

3. Any person who shall plat any such land and cause the same to be recorded without submitting the map thereof to such common council, shall forfeit not more than one hundred dollars and any register of deeds who shall wilfully record any such map or plat without the evidence of its approval by the common council attached thereto, as herein provided, shall forfeit not more than one hundred dollars. All forfeitures incurred under this section shall be sued for or recovered in the name of such cities.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 122.

AN ACT to amend section 755 of the statutes, relating to the official bond required of the register of deeds.

SECTION 1. Section 755 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 755. The bond of the register of deeds shall be in the sum of three thousand dollars, with two or more sureties, and conditioned, in substance, as follows: Whereas, the above bounden.....was elected to the office of the register of deeds in the county of.....on the .....day of..... A. D. ...., now, therefore, the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the said.....and his deputies shall faithfully, correctly and impartially perform all the duties of said office, and shall deliver to his successor in office all books, records, maps, deeds, mortgages, papers and other things belonging to said office, then the above obligation shall be void; otherwise to be and remain in full force. In counties having a population of one hundred and fifty thousand or more such bond of the register of deeds conditioned for the accuracy of his work and the faithful, correct and impartial performance of the duties of such office, shall be in such sum not less than three thousand dollars as the county board of such county may pre-
