CHAPTER 157.

AN ACT to amend section 764a of the statutes, relating to the compensation and salaries of the register of deeds, his deputy and clerks, their duties in respect to the collection of fees and accounting therefor, and the number of such clerks and assistants to be appointed, in counties having a population of two hundred and fifty thousand or more.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 764a of the statutes is amended to read:
Section 764a. * * *

1. In any county having a population of two hundred and fifty thousand or more according to the last state or United States census, the register of deeds shall receive in lieu of all fees, a salary to be fixed by the board of supervisors of such county. He shall appoint a deputy register of deeds and such other clerks, copyists and assistants as said county board shall authorize and prescribe, who shall be compensated by salaries to be fixed by said county board. Said county board may at any annual or adjourned meeting thereof prescribe the number of said clerks, copyists and assistants that may be so appointed and may at any legal meeting thereof and from time to time as the work in the office of such register of deeds may require, increase or decrease the number of such clerks, copyists and assistants that may be so appointed and employed or authorize the appointment and employment, temporarily or continuously, of additional clerks, and may at any such meeting fix the amounts of their salaries. All such salaries shall be paid by the county treasurer monthly in the same manner as other county officers are paid. And the salaries of the register of deeds, his deputy, clerks, copyists and assistants so paid, shall be in lieu of all fees, per diem and compensation for services rendered by them.

2. Every such register of deeds shall receive and collect the following fees, to-wit:

(1) For entering and recording any deed or other instrument, seven and one-half cents for each folio, and three cents for every
