CHAPTER 387.

AN ACT to create section 959p of the statutes, relating to the sprinkling of streets.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 959p. 1. Whenever a petition shall be presented to the common council of any city of the second, third or fourth class, signed by the owners of more than one-half of the land abutting on any street in any block or number of blocks, praying that such part of said street be sprinkled during a specified time, said common council shall cause such street or part of such street to be sprinkled as prayed for. Whenever the common council shall so decide it may, without petition, cause any street or portion of a street, which shall have been permanently improved and paved with a permanent pavement, to be sprinkled during such period as it may order. The board of public works, or the person or body performing the duties of such board shall keep an accurate account of the cost of such sprinkling and shall on or before the first Monday of Novem-
