CHAPTER 427.

AN ACT to amend sections 4422 and 4423 of the statutes, relating to false pretenses.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4422 of the statutes is amended to read: SECTION 4422. Any person who shall falsely personate or represent another and in such assumed character shall receive any money or other property whatever intended to be delivered to the party so personated, with intent to convert the same to his own use, shall, if the money or property so received shall exceed in value the sum of one hundred dollars, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years nor less than one year, or in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding * * * one thousand dollars, nor less than two hundred dollars; and if the value of the money or property so received shall not exceed one hundred dollars, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or county jail not more than one year or by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

SECTION 2. Section 4423 of the statutes is hereby amended to read: SECTION 4423. Any person who shall designedly, by any false pretenses or by any privy or false token and with intent to defraud, obtain from any other person any money, goods, wares, merchandise, or other property, or shall obtain with such intent the signature of any person to any written instrument, the false making whereof would be punishable as forgery, shall if the amount of money or other property so received or the face value of such written instrument shall exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years not less than one year, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding * * * one thousand dollars or less than two hundred dollars, and if the amount of money or property so received or face value of such written instrument so procured, shall not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.
