CHAPTER 464.

AN ACT to amend sections 11—7 and 11—10 and subsection 4 of section 11—12 of the statutes, relating to rotation of names upon the primary ballot.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 11—7 and 11—10 and subsection 4 of section 11—12 of the statutes are amended to read: Section 11—7. 1. At least twenty-five days before any primary preceding a general election, the secretary of state shall transmit to each county clerk a certified list containing the name and postoffice address of each person for whom nomination papers have been filed in his office, and entitled to be voted for at such primary, together with a designation of the office for which he is a candidate, and the party or principle he represents; such lists shall designate the order in which the names of the candidates shall be printed upon the primary ballot in each assembly district.

2. For the purpose of determining the order in which the names of candidates for each state office shall be placed upon the primary ballot, the secretary of state shall number the assembly districts consecutively from one to one hundred in the order of their population according to the last preceding census, beginning with the district having the largest population, which shall be numbered one. He shall number the assembly districts and parts of districts in each congressional or senatorial district in the same manner from one upward.

3. The secretary of state shall arrange the surnames of all candidates for each office alphabetically for the first assembly district: thereafter for each succeeding district, the name appearing first for each office in the last preceding district shall be placed last.

* * * 4. Such clerk shall forthwith upon receipt thereof publish under the proper party designation, the title of each office, the names and addresses of all persons for whom nomination papers have been filed, giving the name and address of each, the date of the primary, the hours during which the polls will be opened, and that the primary will be held at the regular polling places in each precinct.

* * * 5. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to publish such notice once each week for two consecutive weeks prior to said primary.

* * * 6. Such clerk shall also forthwith mail copies of such notice to each town, village, and city clerk of his county, who shall immediately post copies of the same in at least three public places in each precinct in his town, village, or city, designating therein the location of the polling booth in each election precinct.

Section 11—10. 1. At least twenty days before the September primary each county clerk shall prepare sample official ballots in substantially the annexed form marked "A".
* * * which sample * * * ballots shall be printed upon tinted or colored paper and shall contain no blank endorsement or certificate. Said clerk shall place thereon, under the appropriate title of each office and party designation, the names of all candidates to be voted for in the precincts of his county. The names certified by the secretary of state shall be arranged in the order in which they are certified. The names of candidates for whom nomination papers have been filed in the office of the county clerk shall be arranged as hereinafter provided.

2. For the purpose of determining the order in which the names of candidates for each office for whom nomination papers have been filed in the office of the county clerk shall be placed on the primary ballot, the county clerk shall prepare a list of the election precincts of his county. Such list shall be prepared by arranging the various towns, cities, and villages of the county in alphabetical order, and the wards or precincts of each city, village, or town in numerical order under the name of such city, village, or town. The precincts in each assembly district within the county shall be arranged in the same manner.

3. The county clerk shall arrange the surnames of all candidates for each office for whom nomination papers have been filed in his office alphabetically for the first precinct in the list; thereafter for each succeeding precinct; the name appearing first for each office in the last preceding precinct shall be placed last.

* * * 4. Such clerk shall forthwith submit the ticket of each party to the county chairman thereof and mail a copy to each candidate for whom nomination papers have been filed with him as required by this act, to his postoffice address as given in such nomination paper, and he shall post a copy of each sample ballot in a conspicuous place in his office.

* * * 5. On the tenth day before such primary the county clerk shall correct any errors or omissions in the ballot, cause the same to be printed and distributed as required by law in the case of ballots for the general election, except that the number of ballots to be furnished to each precinct shall be twice the number of votes cast thereat in the last preceding general election.

Section 11—12. 4. At all primaries there shall be an Australian ballot made up of the several party tickets herein provided for, all of which shall be securely fastened together at the top and folded, provided that there shall be as many separate tickets as there are parties entitled to participate in said primary election. The names of all candidates * * * at the September primary shall be arranged as provided in sections 11—7 and 11—10 of the statutes as herein amended. The names of candidates at city primaries shall be arranged alphabetically according to surnames.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
