CHAPTER 51.

AN ACT to amend section 13 of chapter 72 of the laws of 1897, relating to a municipal court at the city of Racine, in and for the county of Racine.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13 of chapter 72 of the laws of 1897 is amended to read: Section 13. The judge of said municipal court shall appoint a suitable person to the office of clerk of said municipal court, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of said judge and until his successor is appointed. Said clerk shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, and file the same in the office of the county clerk of Racine county, and shall also execute and deliver to said county clerk a bond with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the chairman of the county board of said county and the mayor of the city of Racine, conditioned that he will account to and pay over to the city treasurer of said city, and to the county treasurer of said county, all fines and penalties and other moneys belonging to the treasury of the city or county of Racine, and will pay over all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his office as clerk, to the persons entitled to the same, and perform all of the duties of his office as required by law. Said clerk shall keep justice dockets for civil and criminal actions heretofore cognizable by justices of the peace, and shall also keep a record book, a criminal record, a judgment book, a lien docket and a minute book, in the manner and form now in use in the circuit courts of this state and containing the entries as provided by law in section 742, of the revised statutes of the state of Wisconsin. He shall have the care and custody of all books, papers and records of the courts; he shall be present at all trials, and may administer all necessary oaths. He shall keep the minutes of all proceedings, issue the commitments and executions and enforce the same, and make up and keep the record of the court in all cases therein, under the direction of the judge. He shall issue all processes, excepting summons in civil actions, under his hand and seal of the court and teste them in the name of the judge, signing them by his title of office, and tax the costs, including one dollar for state tax, in the cases required by law; provided, always, that summons in civil actions may be issued and served in the same manner as in actions commenced in the circuit court. He shall, in the presence of the sheriff of said county, draw the grand and petit juries for said court in the same manner and upon the notice required by law for the drawing of such juries in circuit courts, except as hereinafter provided. He may take bail from persons arrested when the court is not in session, subject to the revision of the court, and shall under the direction of the judge perform all other acts necessary to carry out the jurisdiction herein given to said court. He shall procure all necessary blanks, stationery, book and paper cases, desks, record books, office furniture, light and fuel for the use of said court. He shall perform all ministerial acts required of him by and under the direction of the judge of said court. He shall render to the county treasurer his account quarterly, which said account shall be so itemized as to show the fines, penalties and officers' fees in each case, and in criminal cases a brief statement of the character of the prosecution and the judgment of the court. He shall receive a salary of * * * twelve hundred dollars per annum until otherwise fixed by the county board of said county, payable * * * monthly, and shall receive no fees of office or compensation other than his salary herein fixed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
