CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT to amend section 886 (885) of the statutes, relating to jurisdiction of justices of the peace in villages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 886 (885) of the statutes is amended to read: Section 886 (885). The justice of the peace shall, within ten days after his election, take and subscribe the oath of office and file the same with the clerk of the circuit court, and also execute and file with such clerk a bond in similar form to that required of justices elected by towns. He shall hold his office for two years from the time of his election and until his successor is elected and qualified, and when a vacancy occurs it shall be filled at the next annual charter election. In case of a vacancy a temporary appointment, until filled by election, may be made by the village board. He shall have concurrent jurisdiction and powers throughout the county with other justices of the peace; and whenever there shall be no police justice in such village he shall have * * * exclusive jurisdiction of all cases arising under the ordinances and by-laws of such village, and all the powers given herein to the police justice, and be taken as included within that designation herein.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
