CHAPTER 265.

AN ACT to add three new subsections to section 1955y—1 of the statutes, relating to assessment insurance companies other than fraternal or mutual benefit societies.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to section 1955y—1 of the statutes three new subsections to read: 2. a. Provided, that where the stipulated premium or periodical call upon the members of any domestic or foreign company shall exceed the net one-year term premium according to the mortality table used in computing or establishing said premiums or periodical calls, or the American Experience Mortality Table, if none has been used, and interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum, the members shall be credited with the premiums paid, together with interest thereon, at such rate, as nearly as may be practicable, as the company may have earned from year to year, less the policy-holder's share of losses and expenses.

b. Said losses shall be actuarially computed in accordance with the mortality table used in computing the premium rates as aforesaid, with due allowance for any savings on account of favorable mortality experience.

c. The values or equities so determined shall be carried to the credit of the individual members, and in case of lapse of any policy hereafter issued in this state, the amount shall be applied as a net single premium to purchase extended insurance for a term computed upon the table of mortality and rate of interest aforesaid.

3. Every such company shall hold assets sufficient to meet its liabilities on account of all values of policies as ascertained under this section, in addition to all other liabilities.

4. A statement of the credits to any policy-holders shall, after the year 1911, be furnished to any such policy-holder upon request.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
