CHAPTER 385.

AN ACT to create subsection 12 of section 141 of the statutes, authorizing the secretary of state to destroy useless documents filed in his office.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to section 141 of the statutes a new subsection to read: (Section 141.) 12. Whenever it shall be found necessary to destroy useless documents in order to secure vault space for state records, the secretary of state may, from time to time in his discretion, so dispose of any of the following named records: reports on sales of real estate filed by registers of deeds; statements of taxes from county, city, town, and village clerks; and bands of notaries public filed over ten years prior thereto; monthly and quarterly reports by state depositories filed over two years prior thereto; all samples of state printing after audit and payment of claims; all crop reports by county clerks.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 15, 1911.
