CHAPTER 93.

AN ACT to amend section 1, of chapter 168, of the laws of 1897, entitled "An act to authorize the levy of a tax by the common council of cities having a population of 150,000 or more, and authorized by law to establish and maintain a public museum therein."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 168, of the laws of 1897, is amended to read: Section 1. Whenever any city in this state shall have a population of one hundred and fifty thousand or more, and such city is therefore authorized by law to erect and maintain a public museum under the management and control of a board of trustees, it shall be competent for the common council of such city to annually levy and collect a tax upon all the taxable property of such city at the same time and in the same manner as other city taxes are levied and collected by law, a * * * tax not exceeding * * * eight hundred fifty-seven ten thousandths (.0857) of a mill upon each dollar of the assessed valuation of said taxable property, the amount of which said tax shall be determined by said board of trustees and certified to the common council and to the city comptroller * * * at the next regular meeting of the board of trustees following the confirmation of the assessment roll of the city by the common council; and the entire amount of said * * * tax shall be paid into and held in the city treasury as a separate and distinct fund to be known as the museum fund, and shall not be appropriated or used directly or indirectly for any other purpose than for the maintenance and for the increase of the public museum, the payment of the salaries of the custodian, assistants and other employes of the museum, the purchase of furniture, fixtures, supplies and fuel, and the incidental expenses of said museum, which said salaries shall not be increased in any manner within two years from and after the passage and publication of this act.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts contravening any of the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 8, 1911.
