CHAPTER 169.

AN ACT to amend section 926—15 of the statutes, relating to improvements in cities of the third and fourth class and in villages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 926—15 of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 926—15) In all cities of the third and fourth class and all villages incorporated under special charters, when the whole or any part of the cost of a sewer, gutter, or the paving or macadamizing or graveling, or other improvement of any street or alley is to be paid by special assessments against lots or parcels of land fronting or abutting upon the street or alley in which such sewer, or gutter is laid or upon the street or alley to be paved, macadamized, graveled or otherwise improved, the board of public works, as soon as the assessment against the lots or parcels of land fronting or abutting thereon shall be made, shall give notice to all parties interested by advertisement for not less than one week in the official paper of * * * the city or village, if any, otherwise in some paper published therein, and if no paper is published therein, then by posting up a notice in at least three public places in said city or village, one of which shall be posted on the street or alley where the gutter, or sewer is to be laid or the street improved, that such assessment had been made and is ready for inspection in their office, that the same will be open for review and correction by the said board at their office for not less than five days after the publication of said notice during certain hours, and not less than two hours of each day, and that all persons interested will be heard by the board in objection to such assessment, and generally in the matter of such review and correction. It shall be sufficient to state in such notice in brief for what and in what locality such assessment has been made, and no further notice * * * or publication of such assessment shall be necessary. During the time mentioned in such notice, the board shall hear objections and evidence, and they may correct such assessment during such time and for three days thereafter. In cities and villages not having a board of public works the common council or village board may appoint three persons to act in place of such board with the same powers.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force upon its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 170.

AN ACT to amend section 695 of the statutes, relating to the compensation of members of the county board.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 695 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 695. Each member of the county board shall be allowed and paid by the county a compensation for his services and expenses in attending the meeting of the board at the rate of three dollars per day for the time he shall actually attend, excepting Sundays, and six cents for each mile traveled in going to and returning from the place of meeting by the most usual traveled route; provided that any county board may at their annual meeting, by resolution, fix the compensation of the members of such board to be elected at the next ensuing election, at any sum not exceeding four dollars per day; but no per diem allowance shall be made for any time occupied in traveling, where mileage is allowed therefor; and no supervisor shall be allowed to draw pay for more than fifteen days' attendance on the county board in any one year, except for services as a member of a committee, as provided in section 668; provided that in counties where the population exceeds fifteen thousand, the county board may sit and receive pay for not exceeding twenty days in each year.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
