CHAPTER 22.

AN ACT to amend section 919c of the statutes, relating to borrowing money and raising a tax for the construction of sewers in villages, and validating proceedings heretofore had in respect thereto.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 919c of the statutes is amended to read: Section 919c. 1. The president and trustees may, for the purpose of the construction of main sewers and other parts of the work chargeable to the general sewer fund provided for in this section, levy a tax on the taxable real and personal property in such village not to exceed in any one year one-half of one per centum of its assessed valuation, or said president and trustees may borrow money, to the amount of * * * three per centum of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property in such village, and issue negotiable corporate bonds therefor in the manner provided in section 942 and 943 of the statutes. The proceeds of such tax when collected, or the sale of said bonds, shall be devoted and appropriated exclusively to the construction and maintenance of sewers and drains as in this section provided, and shall be known as the general sewer fund. The village treasurer shall not pay out any of said fund for any purpose other than the construction and maintenance of sewers and drains as in this section provided.

2. When the qualified electors of any village shall heretofore have authorized the issuance and sale of the bonds of such village for the purpose of constructing main sewers and other parts of the work chargeable to the general sewer fund provided for in this section in a sum in excess of one per centum, but less than three per centum of the assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property of such village, and where thereafter the president and trustees of such village shall have provided for the issuance and sale of such bonds for said purpose or have duly sold or caused to be sold such bonds, the action and proceedings of the qualified electors and of the president and trustees of such village are hereby fully and in all respects authorized and validated, and any such bonds executed in such form as provided by resolution or ordinance of such village, and all proceedings in relation thereto and the sale thereof shall be and they are hereby declared to be authorized, legal and valid, the construction of such main sewers and other work and the sale of such bonds authorized, and any and all such bonds shall be of full force and ef- fect as the legal and binding obligations of such village.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 25, 1913.
