CHAPTER 35.

AN ACT to detach certain territory from the town of Bayfield, in Bayfield county, and to create the town of Russell.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All that certain territory in the town of Bayfield, in the county of Bayfield, and state of Wisconsin, lying in township fifty-one north, of range four west, township fifty-one north, of range three west, township fifty-two north, of range three west and township fifty-two north, of range four west, being more particularly described as follows, to wit: All of township fifty-one north, of range four west, sections six, seven, eight, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-nine, thirty and thirty-one of township fifty-one north, of range three west, sections eighteen, nineteen and thirty-one of township fifty-two north, of range three west and sections nine, fifteen, sixteen, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-four, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five and thirty-six of township fifty-two north, of range four west, is hereby detached from the said town of Bayfield and is constituted and created a separate town to be known and designated as the town of Russell.

SECTION 2. The qualified electors of the town of Russell shall meet at the Sand River schoolhouse in section eighteen of said township fifty-one north, range four west, on the first Tuesday of April, 1913, and the qualified electors of the town of Bayfield shall meet at the customary place for holding its town meetings in the unincorporated village of Bayfield on the first Tuesday of April, 1913; and at each of such meetings in each of their respective towns, in the manner provided by law, shall elect town officers for each of their respective towns; and the qualified electors of each of said towns shall have the power to do any and all things that the qualified electors of any duly organized town have the power to do. Notice of such first town meeting shall be given by the clerk of the town of Bayfield by posting notices thereof in at least three public places in each of said towns.

SECTION 3. When such election shall have been held, as herein provided, and the town officers required by law elected, and duly qualified, the said town of Russell shall be deemed to be duly organized, and shall possess all the rights, powers, and liabilities of other towns in this state.

SECTION 4. On the 15th day of April, 1913, at ten o'clock A. M., the town boards of the town of Bayfield and the town of Russell shall meet at the office of the town clerk of the town of Bayfield, and apportion the assets, credits, indebtedness and liabilities between the towns, and divide the same according to the provisions of section 672 of the statutes, and the town board of the town found to be indebted to the other, shall have power to levy a tax on the town so found to be indebted to pay such indebtedness. A copy of such apportionment shall be filed with the clerk of the town of Bayfield and the town of Russell.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 36.

AN ACT to amend subsection 1 of section 2441 of the statutes and sections 2 and 3 of chapter 3 of the laws of 1907, relating to elections and terms of office of county judges.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection 1 of section 2441 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 2441. 1. There shall be a general election of county judge in each county on the first Tuesday in April, * * * 1913, and every * * * sixth year thereafter. The term of office of county judge shall be * * * six years, commencing on the first Monday in January after such election.

SECTION 2. Sections 2 and 3 of chapter 3 of the laws of 1907 are amended to read: (Chapter 3, laws of 1907.) Section 2. The * * * election of such additional county * * * judge * * * shall be held on the first Tuesday in April, * * * 1915, and on the first Tuesday in April of each sixth year thereafter. Such election shall be held at the same time and place and under the charge of the same election officials as the elections of judges or other officers held on the same date.

(Chapter 3, laws of 1907.) Section 3. Such additional county judge shall hold his office for a term of * * * six years from the first Monday of June next succeeding such first election; * * * nominations for the office of an additional county judge * * * shall be made in like manner as are made under present laws having reference to county judges.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 28, 1913.
