CHAPTER 356.

AN ACT to create sections 604—1, 604—2, 604—3, 604—4, and 604—5, of the statutes, relating to the hospital for criminal insane.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There are added to the statutes five new sections to read: Section 604—1. The institution created by chapter 585, laws of 1911, as the hospital for the criminal insane is hereby continued and the legal title of such institution shall be the hospital for the criminal insane. Said hospital for the criminal insane is hereby created a separate institution. The jurisdiction of the state board of control of Wisconsin is hereby established over said institution and the powers and duties of said state board of control of Wisconsin, defined by section 561j of the statutes in reference to the management of other state institutions, are hereby made applicable to said hospital for criminal insane.

Section 604—2. Said board shall appoint a superintendent and steward for said institution. All other officers and employees shall be appointed by the superintendent subject to the approval of the state board of control of Wisconsin. Said board shall designate the number of employees and shall fix the salaries of the superintendent and steward. The salaries of all other officers shall be fixed by the superintendent subject to the approval of said board. The said board shall make and adopt such rules and regulations for the management of said institution, as it shall deem proper.

Section 604—3. The said institution shall be used for the custody, care, and special treatment of insane persons of the following classes:

1. Persons who have been convicted of a criminal offense and who become insane while in the state prison, state reformatory, house of correction, or other correctional institution.

2. Persons accused of crime but found not guilty because insane.

3. Persons accused of crime but not tried because of insanity.

4. Persons, who because of suicidal or homicidal tendencies, are dangerous to themselves or others now in state or county hospitals or asylums for the insane.

5. Persons adjudged to be insane, who were previously convicted of a felony.

Section 604—4. The provisions of sections 561jj and 4944 of the statutes are hereby made applicable to the hospital for the criminal insane.

Section 604—5. In all criminal proceedings in which the accused is found to be insane and who belongs to one of the classes defined by section 604—3 and who would otherwise be committed to one of the state hospitals for the insane or the Milwaukee hospital for the insane, shall be by such court committed to said hospital for the criminal insane.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith shall be and the same are hereby repealed so far as such inconsistencies exist.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 27, 1913.

CHAPTER 357.

AN ACT to provide for the holding of terms of the circuit court in and for Sauk County.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Upon the request of the presiding judge of the Ninth judicial circuit, it shall be the duty of the presiding judge of the Seventeenth judicial circuit to attend upon and hold any term of court in Sauk county and in case of his inability so to do, to call in some other judge for such purposes, and the judge of said Seventeenth judicial circuit is hereby given the same power to call in such other judge as is now by law given to the presiding judge of said Ninth circuit. While in attendance upon such term, said judge of the Seventeenth circuit, or any judge called in by him, shall have and exercise all the powers and jurisdiction of the presiding judge of said Ninth judicial circuit.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the official phonographic reporter of the Seventeenth judicial circuit to attend upon and report the proceedings had in said Sauk county whenever the presiding judge of the Seventeenth judicial circuit shall be called in to preside over any term in Sauk county as above provided. The said judge and the said reporter of the Seventeenth judicial circuit shall be subject to the same provisions of law as to the payment of their compensation and expenses as if the said Sauk county was a part of the said Seventeenth judicial circuit.
