CHAPTER 573.

AN ACT to create section 4560a—41 of the statutes, defining the size of the mesh of fish nets.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 4560a—41. For the purpose of enforcing any provision or provisions of any section, or part thereof, in which is specified the minimum size of the mesh of any fish net which may be lawfully used in any of the waters of this state, the size so specified in any such section, or part thereof, shall be construed to mean the size of the mesh of the fish net at the time of the sale by the manufacturer thereof, provided, however, that this rule shall not apply in any case where the shrinkage in the size of mesh is not a natural and necessary consequence of the preservation and use of nets in the customary manner.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved June 25, 1913.

CHAPTER 574.

AN ACT to amend subsection 1 of section 663a of the statutes, relating to county boards in counties having a population of at least two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection 1 of section 663a of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 663a) 1. The county board of supervisors in all counties having a population of at least two hundred and fifty thousand, according to the last state or United States census, shall be composed of supervisors chosen from each assembly district within said county. Each assembly district of said county shall be entitled to one supervisor who shall be elected * * * by the electors of said assembly district.

* * * At the election to be held on the first Tuesday in April, 1914, one supervisor from each assembly district shall be elected by the electors of such assembly district, at said election; those elected in the odd-numbered assembly districts shall be elected for a term of two years and those in the even-numbered districts for a term of four years. Thereafter, beginning with the election to be held upon the first Tuesday in April, 1916, all supervi-
