CHAPTER 25.

AN ACT to repeal sections 776a, 776b and 776c and to create section 776g of the statutes, relating to registration of farms, and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 776a, 776b, and 776c of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 2. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 776g. 1. The owner of any farm or country estate, or his agent duly authorized therefor in writing, may register the name of such farm or estate in the office of the register of deeds of the county wherein the farm or estate is situated. Every register of deeds shall keep a registry book for such purpose, and upon request, shall make registrations therein as provided in this section. Registration shall consist in writing in the registry book the name of the owner of the farm or estate and such name for the farm or estate as the owner or agent may designate, if no other farm or estate in the county has been previously registered under the same name. The register of deeds shall charge and collect twenty-five cents for making such registration. The registry book herein provided for shall be a public record in the office of the register of deeds.

2. Any register of deeds who shall fail or refuse to provide a registry book and make registrations therein, as provided in this section, or who shall charge or collect more than twenty-five cents for making any such registration, or who shall knowingly register a farm or estate under a name previously adopted and registered for some other farm or estate in such county, or any person who shall use, by way of advertisement or otherwise, the name of any farm or estate registered as provided in this section, to designate or as the name of any farm or estate in such county other than the farm or estate for which such name was registered, unless such name was adopted for and used as the name of such other farm or estate prior to the passage and publication of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1915.
