

“Shall the provisions of section 959—81o of the statutes, providing for an annual appropriation for commercial and industrial development, be adopted ?

For appropriation

Against appropriation

Mark an X in the square after the one you wish to vote for.”

3. If a majority of the votes cast on such question shall be in favor of making such appropriation, the provisions of said section 959—81o of the statutes shall thereby be adopted in said city, and the council of such city shall annually thereafter appropriate in cities of the first class not more than four thousand dollars, in cities of the second class not more than three thousand dollars, and in cities of the third and fourth classes not more than two thousand dollars, as provided in section 959—81o of the statutes, until the provisions of said section are rejected, as provided in this section.

4. The question of rejecting the provisions of section 959—81o of the statutes shall be submitted to the electors by the city clerk upon petition, as provided in subsection 1 of this section, and the election thereon shall be held as provided in subsection 2 of this section. If a majority of the votes cast on the question shall be against making such appropriations the provisions of said section shall thereby be rejected, and no appropriation shall thereafter be made under the provisions of said section.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 277.

AN ACT to create section 4423c of the statutes, relating to the unauthorized wearing of badges, insignia and uniforms of any police department, and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 4423c. 1. Any person who shall wear the badge or insignia, or any imitation thereof, of any police department in this state, or use the same to obtain aid or assistance within the state, unless he shall be entitled to use or wear the same under appointment made by virtue of law, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than thirty days, or by a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

2. Any person not regularly appointed a member of any police department in this state who shall wear a uniform, or any part of a uniform, of the color and style adopted by any police department, shall be punished for each such offense by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than five days nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The district attorney of the county in which any such offense is committed shall bring an action in the name of the state against the offender.

3. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting persons of the theatrical profession from wearing such uniform in any playhouse or theater while actually engaged in following said profession.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 278.

AN ACT to amend sections 3964 and 3965 of the statutes, relating to guardianship of minors.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 3964 and 3965 of the statutes are amended to read: Section 3964. The father of the minor, if living, and in case of his death the mother, * * * being themselves respectively competent to transact their own business and not otherwise unsuitable, shall be entitled to the custody of the person and estate of the minor, and to the care of his education. If the minor has no father or mother living, or he or she be incompetent or unsuitable, the guardian so appointed shall have the custody of the person and estate of the minor and the care of his education; but the court may in its discretion appoint separate guardians of the person and estate of the minor. The guardian of the person shall have the custody of the person, and the care of his education, and the guardian of the estate
