CHAPTER 427.

AN ACT to authorize Black River Falls Relief Committee to deed certain lands to the city of Black River Falls.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A committee, known as the Black River Falls Relief Committee, having been appointed by the governor of this state at the time of the flood in the spring of 1912, which worked great devastation in the city of Black River Falls, Bert L. Van Gordon and George F. Cooper, being then, and still, members of said relief committee, and funds from numerous sources having come into the hands of said committee, a portion of which was devoted to the purchase of certain real estate in Black River Falls, for the purpose of acquiring a supply of sand and gravel to be used in filling, and the work of said committee having been completed, and a report of its transactions having been made, and the title to the real estate so purchased by said committee is now standing in the name of Bert L. Van Gordon and George F. Cooper, trustees, who were designated by the said Black River Falls Relief Committee to take and hold the title to said lands, and it appearing that the deeding of said lands to the city of Black River Falls is the most appropriate disposition that can be made thereof, and because of the fact that seventy-one thousand dollars was appropriated to the said Black River Falls Relief Committee by chapter 13 of the laws of the special session of 1912, and as it might be contended that a portion of said money so appropriated by the state went into the purchase of said lands (although as a matter of fact said lands were purchased and paid for out of funds received from other sources before said appropriation was made), the said Bert L. Van Gordon and George F. Cooper, trustees aforesaid, desire the pro-
