CHAPTER 521.

AN ACT to amend section 941 of the statutes, relating to municipal loans for temporary purposes.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 941 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 941. When any tax has been ordered or levied to be collected on the next tax roll and such tax roll shall have been placed in the hands of the treasurer for collection, any town board, village board or common council may, in temporary necessity, borrow money in anticipation of the payment of such tax and apply the same to the purposes for which such tax was ordered or levied; and they may give orders on the treasurer, payable at a future date, therefor, with or without interest, and for the payment thereof such tax shall stand irrevocably pledged and irrevocable. But no order on any town, city or village treasurer shall in any case whatever be, or be held to be, negotiable according to the usage of merchants. Provided, that whenever any such money shall have heretofore been borrowed for municipal purposes before such tax roll shall have been placed in the hands of the treasurer for collection, such loan shall be and hereby is validated.

CHAPTER 522.

AN ACT to amend section 926—125q of the statutes, relating to court orders and acts of the common councils of cities, in vacating plats.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 926—125q of the statutes is amended to read: Section 926—125q. No action shall hereafter be brought or maintained to annul or set aside any final order of any Circuit Court, or action of the Common Council of any city, heretofore made or * * * taken for the vacation of any public grounds, waterways, plat, street, avenue, alley, slip or pier, or any part thereof, unless such action be pending or be commenced within six months from the passage and publication of this act; and at the end of such six months such attempted vacations shall be hereby validated except as they may be invalidated by actions then pending. If any such action shall be commenced by any person whose interest can be fully compensated in damages, this fact may be found in the action and the plaintiff's damages be assessed in the manner provided by law for the assessment of damages in the exercise of the right of eminent domain by railroad companies and the damages so ascertained shall be paid by the municipal corporation within the limits of which such attempted vacation has been made; and * * * such payment * * * shall terminate such action without affecting the validity of the vacation.
