CHAPTER 566.

AN ACT to enlarge the county seat of justice in counties containing cities of the second class.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever heretofore in any county within the state, the county seat of justice has been by an act of legislature or otherwise located upon or at a particular government subdivision, and thereafter a city has been organized or created within said county, which city has or shall become a city of the second class, the territory of which city includes said parcel of land, the territory embraced within the limits of said city shall be the county seat of justice of said county whenever the county board of such county, whether petitioned therefor or not, shall, by majority vote of such board, submit the question of so enlarging the territorial limits of the county seat of justice to a vote of the qualified voters of the county at a general election, and a majority of the votes cast at such election on that subject shall be in favor of such enlargement. The provisions of section 655 of the statutes, relating to notice and conduct of such election, qualifications of voters, canvassing, certifying and recording the votes, certification to and the governor's proclamation and the publication of same, so far as not inconsistent herewith, and no other provisions of said sections, shall apply and have the same effect in proceedings hereunder as under section 655.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved August 17, 1915.
