CHAPTER 593.

AN ACT relating to the distribution of certain reports of the adjutant general and other publications, and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The books printed by the state under the provisions of chapter 595, laws of 1911; chapter 86, laws of 1913, and all similar publications authorized by the laws of 1915, when printed and delivered to the superintendent of public property, shall, under the direction of the governor and the editor of such compilations, as a representative of the G. A. R., be distributed by the said superintendent as follows: One complete set to each public library and each high school library, and one or more sets to the university and each normal school, the state historical society and the free library commission, and such other educational institutions located within the state which maintain an adequate library of historical works. Of the volumes undisposed of, a copy of the volume known as "Records and Sketches of Military Organizations" may be given to any former Wisconsin soldier applying therefor, and a copy of the "Wisconsin Losses in the Civil War" to the father, mother or widow of any soldier whose name is recorded in such volume. The volumes undisposed of shall be sold at such prices as are, upon the recommendation of the editor of the series, fixed by the printing commissioners and approved by the governor.

There is appropriated from any money in the general fund not otherwise appropriated three hundred dollars to cover the cost of distributing the above named publications.

No disbursement or distribution of books shall be made unless with the approval of the governor, except as herein specifically authorized. Money received from sales shall be paid into the treasury.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved August 19, 1915.
