CHAPTER 637.

AN ACT to repeal section 573f of the statutes and to create a new section to be numbered 573f of the statutes, and to amend subsection 51 of section 172—67 of the statutes, relating to dependent children and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 573f of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. There is added to the statutes a new section to be numbered and to read: Section 573f. 1. If any person shall have knowledge that any child is dependent upon the public for support or that such child is neglected or that the health of such child is endangered, such person may bring any such fact to the notice of a judge of a juvenile court or of a county court of the county in which such child resides.

2. The said judge may make or cause to be made such investigation and examination before the granting of aid for such child as he may deem necessary.

3. The proceedings provided for by this section may include one or more children, all of whom may be named in the same notice, and order of the judge thereon.

4. Upon such investigation the judge may, as the best interest of such child requires, grant aid to it or to its parents or to any person having the care and custody of such child, or commit such child to the state public school, or place such child in the home of a relative or friend of the family or in the home of a person interested in public welfare or make such other disposition of such child as he may deem wise.

5. Aid for dependent children shall only be granted upon the following conditions: There must be one or more children living with or dependent upon the mother or grandparents or person having the care and custody of such children, one or more
