CHAPTER 120

AN ACT to amend sections 697b and 697h of the statutes, relating to the term of office of superintendents of workhouses.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 697b and 697h of the statutes, are amended to read: Section 697b. Such workhouse shall be managed pursuant to such rules and regulations as the county board may from time to time prescribe. It shall be under the care of a superintendent, who shall be elected by such board at * * * an annual meeting thereof, and hold his office for * * * two years from the first Monday of January following his election, unless sooner removed by such board for incompetency, improper conduct or other cause. His duties shall be prescribed and his salary fixed by such board at such meeting, except that when any workhouse is completed before the annual meeting of the county board such superintendent may be chosen for the period intervening between the time of its completion and the next annual meeting at any meeting of the board, and his salary be then fixed. Such superintendent shall, before entering upon his duties, execute to the county a bond in such sum and with such sureties as shall be directed by the county board, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and that he will account for all moneys which shall come into his hands as superintendent. At each annual meeting of the board of any county which has established and maintains a workhouse, the chairman thereof shall appoint three members who shall be the committee on workhouse, and who shall, not less than once every sixty days, inspect such workhouse and its management, and report at each session of the board concerning the same, and recommend such rules and regulations as they may deem proper for the government thereof. If a vacancy occurs in the office of superintendent it shall be filled by such committee until the next session of the county board, and may be by them approved, in which case the appointee shall hold for the unexpired portion of the term. The county board may allow the committee on workhouse such compensation as they may determine.

Section 697h. Such workhouse shall be under the care and management of a superintendent, who shall be elected * * * by the commission hereinbefore provided for; his term of office shall commence on the first Monday of January next after his election, and continue for * * * two years unless sooner terminated by removal by such commission for incompetency, improper conduct or other cause satisfactory to the same. A vacancy occurring from any cause may be filled by the commission for the residue of the term, and the compensation of the superintendent shall be fixed by them. Said superintendent shall, before entering upon his duties, execute to such counties a bond in such sum as the commission shall direct, with sureties to be approved by them, conditioned for the faithful execution of the duties of his office and compliance by him with all such regulations, rules and by-laws as shall be prescribed by the commission for the government, management and discipline of the workhouse under his charge and of the persons who may be confined therein. The superintendent shall appoint and be responsible for the acts of all necessary assistants, but the commission may fix their number and the duties and compensation of each. The compensation of the superintendent and his assistants shall be paid upon orders issued by the chairman of the commission out of a fund previously created, at such times as the commission shall direct, and out of the several county treasuries in the proportion hereinafter prescribed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 24, 1917.
