CHAPTER 411

AN ACT relating to county bonds.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the electors of any county have heretofore voted under the provisions of section 697—67 of the statutes, in favor of the issuance of county bonds in an amount greater than is authorized by said section, the county board is authorized to issue bonds up to the maximum provided by said section irrespective of any bonds then outstanding and issued under section 1317m—12. All bonds heretofore voted for or issued in accordance with this section are hereby declared valid and legal notwithstanding any irregularities in the procedure preceding or subsequent to said vote.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 412

AN ACT to create section 391 of the statutes, relating to a training school for public service at the university.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 391. 1. The board of regents of the state university is hereby authorized to establish and to maintain, when sufficient funds are available, a training school for public service. Such school shall be a professional school and shall be devoted to practical training for the administrative service of the state of Wisconsin or of any county or municipality therein, or of civic organizations.

2. Persons who have satisfactorily completed the work required in the training school for public service shall, upon graduation, receive a proper university degree and a diploma in public administration stating the particular character of their training. No person shall receive such diploma unless at least one-third of his total credits in such school shall be for actual work in municipal, county, or state departments or in quasi-public work and unless he shall have submitted a thesis dealing with an actual problem of municipal, county or state service based on actual service in or contact with such service and approved by
