CHAPTER 418

AN ACT to amend section 568 of the statutes and to create a new paragraph of subsection (6) of section 20.17 of the statutes, relating to summer school for adult blind at the state school for the blind and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 568 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 568. The object of the school for the education of the blind, established in Janesville, shall be to afford to that unfortunate class, so far as possible, enlightened and practical education, which may aid them to obtain the means of subsistence, discharge the duties of citizens and secure all the happiness which they are capable of attaining. The general supervision and government of said school is vested in the state board of control. A summer school for adult blind persons shall be maintained in connection with such school for the blind.

SECTION 2. A new paragraph is added to subsection (6) of section 20.17 of the statutes to read: (20.17) (6) (e) Annually, beginning July 1, 1917, one thousand five hundred dollars for maintaining the summer school in connection with the school for the blind.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 14, 1917.

CHAPTER 419

AN ACT to create section 2210a of the statutes, relating to real estate mortgages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: Section 2210a. The removal, without the consent of the mortgagee or his assigns, of any building from any real estate upon which there is an unsatisfied mortgage, properly recorded, shall not destroy the lien of such mortgage upon such removed building, but the mortgagee or his assigns shall be entitled to recover the possession of the same in an action of replevin, from any person, and wherever the same may be situated, without regard to the question of the adequacy of the real estate re-
