CHAPTER 124.

AN ACT to amend section 2845 of the statutes, relating to appeals from inferior courts and notice of trial.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2845 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 2845. Actions pending on appeal from any inferior court may be noticed for trial and placed upon the calendar in the manner provided by section 113.09. The note of issue required by said section shall contain the title of the action, the names of the attorneys respectively, the time when issue was joined, and briefly state whether the issue be an issue of law or of fact, and if the latter, whether triable by the court or by the jury. If such note of issue be not filed the court may in its discretion direct the action when so noticed for trial to be placed on the calendar for the term. In circuit courts having five hundred or more actions on the term calendar such appeals may be brought on for immediate trial and determination out of their regular order on the calendar upon motion at any time by either party thereto.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
