

Section 1921—35. Every company subject to the provisions of this act shall file with the commissioner of insurance such information regarding its writings, practices and experience as he may from time to time require. Every company subject to this act shall, on or before the first day of May, 1920, and annually thereafter, report to the commissioner of insurance of this state, the amount of insurance written, the amount of premiums received and the amount of losses paid during the year ending on the preceding thirty-first of December and covering liability risks in the state of Wisconsin. Such report shall show such experience by classes as may be required by the commissioner of insurance. The commissioner shall prepare and supply each company subject to the provisions of this act with blanks upon which to make such report. The experience of individual companies shall not be made public.

Section 1921—36. Sections 1921—30 to 1921—35, both inclusive, shall not apply to risks covered under the workmen's compensation act nor to the rates, rating system or classification of such risks.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on September 1, 1919.
Approved May 2, 1919.

CHAPTER 137.

AN ACT to amend section 4570 of the statutes, relating to the removal of rock and stone from the natural bed of navigable waters.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4570 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 4570. Any person who shall dig, remove or carry away any rock, * * * stone, sand, gravel, clay or other substance from the natural bed of Lake Michigan, Green Bay, Lake Superior, the Mississippi River, or other navigable waters within the jurisdiction of this state, not being a riparian owner upon the same at such place, without the consent of the supervisors of the town, the common council of the city or the trustees of the village within whose boundaries the place is situated, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 2, 1919.
