CHAPTER 607.

AN ACT to amend the first paragraph and subsection (4) of section 6.01 extending the right of suffrage to women, and to repeal section 2, chapter 120, Laws of 1919, providing for a referendum.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2, Chapter 120, Laws of 1919, is repealed.

SECTION 2. The first paragraph and subsection (4) of section 6.01 of the statutes are amended to read: (6.01) (First paragraph) Every male person * * * of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, belonging to either of the following classes, who shall have resided in the state for one year next preceding any election, and in the election district where he * * * offers to vote ten days, shall be deemed a qualified elector at such election:

(4) Any civilized person, being a descendant of the Chippewas of Lake Superior or any other Indian tribe, residing within this state, and not upon any Indian reservation, who shall make and subscribe to an oath before the clerk of the circuit court or his deputy of the county where such person resides that he * * * is not a member of any Indian tribe, and has no claim upon the United States for aid and assistance from any appropriation made by congress for the benefit of Indians, and that he * * * thereby relinquishes all tribal relations, and all right to claim or receive such aid, shall be entitled, on such oath being filed and recorded, to vote at all elections held in this state, if he * * * is otherwise qualified. The oath so taken, on being corroborated as to the residence and tribal relations of such person by the affidavit of a qualified elector, shall be filed in the office of the clerk before whom it was taken and recorded by him in a book to be provided for that purpose, upon such person paying to said clerk the sum of one dollar.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 608.

AN ACT to create subsections (5), (6) and (7) of section 29.21 of the statutes, and subsection (12) of section 20.20 of the statutes, relating to the conservation commission, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Three new subsections are added to section 29.21 of the statutes to read: (29.21) (5) Each member of the state conservation commission, for the purposes of this section, is empowered to administer oaths, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents and testimony. In case of failure of any person to comply with any subpoena of the commission or to testify to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the circuit court of any county or the judge thereof upon application of the commission or any member thereof, shall issue an order requiring such person to comply with such subpoena and to testify, or either, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

(6) Each person appearing before the state conservation commission by its order shall receive for his attendance the fees and mileage provided by law for witnesses in civil actions in courts of record, which shall be audited and paid upon presentation of proper vouchers sworn to by such witnesses and certified by the chairman of the commission.

(7) The state conservation commission may issue pamphlets and bulletins from time to time, and may also issue a publication or magazine at such stated intervals as they may determine, all pertaining to fish and game, forests, parks and other kindred subjects of general information and may sell subscriptions thereto. Provided, however, that in case a publication or magazine is issued under the authority thereof, the same must be self-sus-
