CHAPTER 608.

AN ACT to create subsections (5), (6) and (7) of section 29.21 of the statutes, and subsection (12) of section 20.20 of the statutes, relating to the conservation commission, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Three new subsections are added to section 29.21 of the statutes to read: (29.21) (5) Each member of the state conservation commission, for the purposes of this section, is empowered to administer oaths, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents and testimony. In case of failure of any person to comply with any subpoena of the commission or to testify to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the circuit court of any county or the judge thereof upon application of the commission or any member thereof, shall issue an order requiring such person to comply with such subpoena and to testify, or either, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

(6) Each person appearing before the state conservation commission by its order shall receive for his attendance the fees and mileage provided by law for witnesses in civil actions in courts of record, which shall be audited and paid upon presentation of proper vouchers sworn to by such witnesses and certified by the chairman of the commission.

(7) The state conservation commission may issue pamphlets and bulletins from time to time, and may also issue a publication or magazine at such stated intervals as they may determine, all pertaining to fish and game, forests, parks and other kindred subjects of general information and may sell subscriptions thereto. Provided, however, that in case a publication or magazine is issued under the authority thereof, the same must be self-sustaining, and no moneys, except from the receipts therefrom, shall ever be used therefor; and provided further that in case said publication or magazine shall not be so self-sustaining, or shall cease so to be, the same shall thereupon cease to be issued.

SECTION 2. There is added to section 20.20 of the statutes a new subsection to be numbered and to read: (20.20) (12) All moneys received by the conservation commission from the sale of subscriptions to any publication or magazine, as provided in subsection (7) of section 29.21, shall be paid, within one week after receipt, into the general fund, and are appropriated therefrom, for the purpose of carrying out said subsection.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
