

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That we respectfully urge the honorable secretary of war to consider the advisability of equipping the national home for disabled volunteer soldiers at Milwaukee to care for disabled Wisconsin soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the war with Germany and her allies and, if such can conveniently be done, to transfer as many as possible of disabled Wisconsin soldiers, sailors and marines as are now being cared for in other national institutions to the said national home at Milwaukee; and be it further

Resolved, That a suitable copy of this resolution properly attested by the presiding officers and chief clerks of both houses be forwarded to the honorable secretary of war.

---

[Jt. Res. No. 56, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 28.

Memorializing congress to continue appropriations for United States employment service.

WHEREAS, For some time the United States employment service has been rendering very great aid in securing positions for the unemployed, and

WHEREAS, The committee on appropriations in the house of representatives has seen fit to strike from the appropriation bill all appropriations made for the continuation of such employment service, against the protest of a strong minority of said committee, and

WHEREAS, If the action of said committee is not reversed all the federal employment offices in the United States will be closed on April 1, 1919, for lack of funds, and

WHEREAS, The need of such employment service is required now as never before due to the fact that we are demobilizing hundreds of thousands of men from military into industrial life; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That congress be respectfully requested to appropriate such sums of money for the United States employment service as will enable the department of labor to continue this very efficient work; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions properly attested be forwarded to the senators and representatives from the state of Wisconsin.