CHAPTER 180.

AN ACT to create subsection (1a) of section 37.25 of the statutes relating to the Educational Bonus Law.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 37.25 of the statutes to read: (37.25) (1a) Whenever an ex-service man who has drawn his or her cash bonus under chapter 667 of the laws of 1919 and is desirous of entering school under the benefits of the educational bonus law, but is not eligible to receive the benefits owing to the fact that he or she is financially unable to return the amount of the cash bonus; the state board of education administrators of section 37.25 are authorized to allow the ex-service man the benefits commencing the date of his assignment to school under the provisions of section 37.25; with the further provision that the monthly benefits be withheld by the state board of education until the aggregate amount he or she received under chapter 667 laws of 1919 can be returned to the service recognition board by the state board of education.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 181.

AN ACT to create section 28.01a and to amend section 20.205 of the statutes, relating to the purchase of lands from counties for forestry purposes, and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 28.01a Lands owned by any county by virtue of any tax deed issued to such county and which the county is willing to sell to the state may be purchased by the state conservation commission, with the approval of the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer, when such lands are adapted for forestry purposes, but the purchase price thereof shall not exceed the amount due the county for taxes, interest and charges.

SECTION 2. Section 20.205 of the statutes is amended to read: 20.205 All moneys, except fines, accruing to the state by reason of any provision of chapter 29 of the statutes, or otherwise received or collected by each and every person for or in behalf of the state conservation commission, if not payable into the forest reserve fund, shall constitute the "Conservation Fund" and shall be paid, within one week after receipt, into the state treasury and credited to said fund. Of this there shall be reimbursed, when available, to the general fund such sums as shall have been expended from appropriations made by subsections (1), (2) and (3) of section 20.20. No money shall be expended or paid from the conservation fund except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; but any unappropriated surplus in said fund may be expended subject to the approval of the governor, secretary of state, and state treasurer, for the purchase of lands from counties for forestry purposes as provided in section 28.01a, for additional equipment, new buildings, new hatcheries, or hatchery ponds, property, improvements, increasing the warden force at any particular period, or any other similar special purpose except road work or improvement work on the state parks.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 3, 1921.

CHAPTER 182.

AN ACT to amend section 1416—15 of the statutes, relating to communicable diseases.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1416—15 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1416—15. Whenever a health officer shall know, suspect, or be informed of the existence of any communicable disease, dangerous to the public health, it shall be the duty of such health officer, or deputy, to at once examine such case, or cases of alleged communicable disease, dangerous to the public health. The health officer having jurisdiction, upon being notified or having knowledge of the existence of any disease which has been designated by the state board of health in its rules and regulations to be quarantinable, shall immediately in person or by
