

SECTION 1. Subsection 1 of section 1797—9 of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 1797—9) 1. It shall be the duty of every railroad to provide and maintain adequate depots and depot buildings at its regular stations for the accommodation of passengers, and said depot buildings shall be kept clean, well-lighted and warmed, for the comfort and accommodation of the traveling public, and shall be kept open continuously from not less than twenty minutes before any train carrying passengers is scheduled to arrive and until such train has departed and for such longer period in any case as the commission may determine necessary for the convenience and accommodation of the public. Provided, that where the commission determines on petition and hearing as provided in section 1797—12 that the service of certain trains in making stops on signals is in excess of reasonably adequate service, the provisions of this section shall not apply in connection with the rendition of such service. All railroads shall keep and maintain adequate and suitable freight depots, buildings, switches and side tracks for the receiving, handling and delivering of freight transported or to be transported by such railroads; provided, that this shall not be construed as repealing any existing law on the subject.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

AN ACT to amend subsection 1 of section 1728c of the statutes, relating to hours of labor for children.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection 1 of section 1728c of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 1728c) 1. No child under the age of sixteen years shall be employed, required, permitted or suffered to work at any gainful occupation, other than domestic service or farm labor, for more than forty-eight hours in any one week, nor more than eight hours in any one day, or before the hour of seven o'clock in the morning or after the hour of six o'clock in the evening, nor more than six days in any one week. In any locality where the daylight savings plan has been adopted the words "seven o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the evening", as hereinbefore used, shall mean seven o'clock in the morning according to daylight savings and six o'clock in the evening according to daylight savings so long as said daylight savings shall remain in force in said locality. A dinner period of not less than thirty minutes shall be allowed during each day. During such dinner period the power shall be shut off from machinery operated by children, and no work shall be permitted. Provided nothing in sections 1728a to 1728j, inclusive, shall be construed to interfere with the employment of children as provided in sections 1728a—1 and 1728u of the statutes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
