2. Jurors shall be summoned as in the circuit court, and the county judge may direct at what time jurors shall be summoned to appear; but no jurors shall be summoned to attend upon any term of said court unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the judge that a jury panel is necessary.

3. At least six days before each term, unless otherwise ordered by the judge, the clerk shall, in the presence of the judge draw from the list of persons provided therefor, twenty-four jurors for such term, and the list so selected shall forthwith be filed in the office of the said clerk. 4. The panel of jurors selected for any term of the circuit court branch of said county court under its civil or criminal jurisdiction shall constitute the panel of jurors for all succeeding terms of court until discharged by the court; but the judge of said court, in his discretion, may order a new panel of jurors to be drawn for the subsequent or any succeeding term.

If for any cause, in selecting a jury, the panel shall become exhausted the court may cause persons qualified to serve as jurors to be returned from the bystanders or from the county at large for the trial thereof and make the proper and necessary orders therefor, provided that in all civil cases involving five hundred dollars or less brought in the circuit court branch of said court if a jury trial is demanded by either party or required by the court a jury of six persons shall be chosen in the same manner as jurors are selected in the circuit court branch of the county court, each side to have nine strikes.
