CHAPTER 411.

AN ACT to create section 1.055 of the statutes, empowering the United States of America to acquire lands in the state of Wisconsin by purchase or otherwise for establishing national forests, and to grant to the United States of America all rights necessary for the proper control and administration of lands so acquired.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 1.055 (1) Consent of the state of Wisconsin is hereby given to the acquisition by the United States by purchase, gift, lease, or condemnation with adequate compensation therefor, of such areas of land not exceeding one hundred thousand acres as the United States may deem necessary for the establishment of national forests in the state, in accordance with the act of congress approved June 7, 1924, and the commissioners of public lands are hereby authorized to sell and convey for a fair consideration to the United States any state lands included within such areas; provided, that the state of Wisconsin shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over such areas so far that civil process, in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the state of Wisconsin against any persons charged with the commission of any crime within or without said areas may be executed thereon in like manner as if this consent had not been given. Provided, further that any tract or tracts so selected shall be first approved by the governor, the commissioners of public lands and the conservation commissioner.

(2) Power is hereby conferred upon the congress of the United States to pass such laws and to make or provide for the making of such rules and regulations, of both a civil and criminal nature, and provide punishment therefor, as in its judgment may be necessary for the administration, control, and protection of such lands as may be from time to time acquired by the United States under the provisions of subsection (1).

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 412.

AN ACT to amend subsection (9) of section 352.03 (4601—4a) and section 352.06 (4601—7) of the statutes, relating to cheese and process cheese.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (9) of section 352.03 (4601—4a) and section 352.06 (4601—7) of the statutes are amended to read: (352.03) (4601—4a) (9) (a) Cheese is the sound, solid, and ripened product made from milk or cream by coagulating the casein thereof with rennet, pepsin, or lactic acid, with or without the addition of ripening ferments and seasoning or added coloring matter; and contains, in the water-free substance, not less than fifty per cent of milk fat; and cheese known as American or Cheddar cheese not more than thirty-eight per cent of moisture with an allowance or tolerance of not to exceed one per cent in excess so that in no case or event shall the moisture content of said cheese exceed thirty-nine per cent; and cheese known as Brick cheese not more than forty-two per cent of moisture with an allowance or tolerance of one per cent in excess so that in no case shall the moisture content of said cheese exceed forty-three per cent; except that Emmenthaler cheese, commonly known as domestic Swiss cheese, shall contain in the water-free substance not less than forty-three per cent of milk fat.

(b) Process cheese is the food product produced by mixing, blending and uniting with the aid of heat, cheese of one or more
