CHAPTER 75.

AN ACT to amend sections 1 and 2 of Chapter 195, laws of 1903, relating to the jurisdiction of the county judge of Adams county, and to fix the salary therefor.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 1 and 2 of chapter 195, laws of 1903, are amended to read: (Chapter 195, laws of 1903) Section 1. There is hereby conferred upon the county court of Adams county, jurisdiction as follows:

The county court of the county of Adams shall have cognizance of and jurisdiction to hear, try and determine, all actions and proceedings at law wherein the amount of debt, damages, penalty or forfeiture shall not exceed the sum of * * * one thousand dollars; actions to recover the possession of personal property with damages for the unlawful taking or detention thereof, wherein the value of the property claimed shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and all charges for offenses arising within said county and which are not punishable by commitment to the state prison; and the judge of said county court shall have power to sentence and commit all persons convicted of any offense of which said court has jurisdiction.

Said court shall have power and jurisdiction throughout said county to cause to come before it persons who are charged with any criminal offense and commit them to jail or bind them over to circuit court as the case may require. The judge of said court shall further have all the jurisdiction, authority, powers and right given by law to justices of the peace and shall be subject to the same prohibitions and penalties as justices of the peace.

SECTION 2. A judgment by confession may be entered before the judge of the county court of the county of Adams in any sum not exceeding * * * one thousand dollars, without action, either for money due or to come due or to secure any person against contingent liability on behalf of the defendant, or both, if a statement in writing be made, signed by the defendant and verified by his oath to the following effect:

First. It must state the amount for which judgment may be entered and authorize the entry of judgment therefor.

Second. If it be money due or to come due, it must state concisely the fact out of which it arose and must show that the sum confessed therefor is justly due or to come due.

Third. If it be for the purpose of securing the plaintiff against a contingent liability, it must state concisely the fact constituting the liability and must show that the sum confessed does not exceed the sum.

SECTION 2. The salary of the county judge of Adams county shall be fixed by the county board but shall be not less than fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 29, 1925.
