CHAPTER 114. ·

AN ACT to amend paragraph (c) of subsection (1) and subsection (3) of section 202.06 of the statutes, relating to the property upon which town mutual insurance companies may write insurance.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Paragraph (c) of subsection (1) and subsection (3) of section 202.06 of the statutes are amended to read. (202.06) (1) (c) No property shall be insured in any such city or village except farm property or detached dwelling houses and contents, or barns or outbuildings used in connection with such dwelling house and not used for trade or manufacturing, and the contents of such barns or outbuildings; provided that, when its directors shall be so authorized at any annual meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose, it may in addition insure property in any of the following classes, in an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars on any single risk: (1) schoolhouses, (2) churches, (3) cheese factories, (4) creameries, (5) blacksmiths' shops, and the contents of any such buildings.

(3) Such corporation may also insure automobiles and motor-driven vehicles * * * against loss or damage by fire and lightning; provided, that such automobile or vehicle shall be separately mentioned and described in the policy. No such insurance shall be effected until authorized by the board of directors or by a by-law adopted at an annual meeting or at a meeting specially called for that purpose; provided, that any corporation heretofore effecting insurance upon automobiles or such vehicles may continue to do so until otherwise ordered at any annual or special meeting, and such insurance heretofore effected is hereby legalized.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
