CHAPTER 321.

AN ACT to amend section 247.29 of the statutes, relating to judgments in divorce actions.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 247.29 of the statutes is amended to read: 247.29 All orders or judgments providing for permanent or temporary alimony or support of children shall direct the payment of all such sums to the clerk of the * * * court for the use of the person or persons to whom the same has been awarded. A party securing an order for temporary alimony or support money shall forthwith file said order, together with all pleadings in the action, with the clerk of the * * * court. Said clerk shall disburse the money so received pursuant to said judgment and order and take receipts therefor. All moneys received or disbursed pursuant to this rule shall be entered in a record book kept by said clerk, which shall be open to the inspection of the parties to the action or of their attorneys. If the alimony or support money adjudged or ordered to be paid shall not be paid to the clerk at the time provided in said judgment or order, the clerk and the divorce counsel of said county shall take such proceedings as shall be directed by the court or presiding judge to secure the payment of such sum. Copies of any order issued to compel such payment shall be sent to counsel who represented the party who was awarded alimony or support money. In case any fees of officers in any proceedings taken by the divorce counsel, including the compensation of the divorce counsel at the rate of fifteen dollars per day, be not collected from the person proceeded against, the same shall be paid out of the county treasury upon the order of the presiding judge and the certificate of the clerk of the court.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
