CHAPTER 7.

AN ACT creating a first municipal court for Washburn county. The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby created and established in and for the county of Washburn a municipal court, to be known and designated as the first municipal court of Washburn county, with powers and jurisdiction hereinafter specified and provided.

SECTION 2. On the first Tuesday in April, 1927, and every four years thereafter, there shall be elected, in the county of Washburn in the same manner as county judges are elected a municipal judge, who shall hold his office for the term of four years from the first Monday of May next following his election and until his successor be elected and qualified; and in case of a vacancy occurring in the office of the municipal judge, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor, as provided in chapter 17 of the statutes. No person shall be eligible to the office of judge of said court except an attorney of a court of record, and such judge shall hold no other county office during the time that he is judge of said municipal court. The county clerk of Washburn county shall give the same notice of the election of the judge of said municipal court as is given in other judicial elections.
