CHAPTER 83.

AN ACT to amend subsection (1) of section 241.13 of the statutes, relating to fraudulent contracts and conveyances.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 241.13 of the statutes is amended to read: (241.13) (1) No sale of any personal property taken by virtue of any chattel mortgage, lease or other instrument intended as security, except instruments covered by chapter 122, except by consent of the mortgagor, his legal representatives or assigns, shall be made before the expiration of five days from the time when the same was actually taken, nor shall any property during such time be removed from the county where it was situated when taken; and during such period such property shall be subject to redemption by payment of the mortgage debt, and the actual and necessary costs and expenses of taking and keeping it incurred at the time of making redemption. No costs or expense for taking and keeping property levied upon and seized before the debt for which such property was pledged as security becomes due, shall be taxed or allowed, unless the mortgagee, his legal representatives or assigns, shall have given at least five days written notice to the mortgagor, his assigns, or the person in whose possession the said mortgaged property shall be, of his intention to levy upon and take such property under and by virtue of such chattel mortgage, lease or other instrument intended as security, which said notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons in circuit court is served, or by registered mail.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 7, 1927.
